WHAT ARE THE 3 BIG BOLD MOVES?

01 Best-in-Class Facilities & Providers

USTA Florida identified a critical need to invest in public tennis infrastructure and providers as the primary driver of growth. Public courts are where many players begin their journey - often becoming future private club members, coaches, and volunteers. This natural pipeline strengthens the entire tennis ecosystem. Tenis must feel accessible and fun from day one, and success means more than programs: it's about empowering play facilitators, building relationships with facility staff, and creating welcoming spaces that keep courts full.

Join us in making tennis accessible for all! Become a community coach, facilitate play at a local park, and become a strong advocate for tennis!

02 Business Insights & Research

USTA Florida has a unique advantage utilizing local data and insights that go beyond national metrics. This bold move focuses on using that data to make informed decisions, demonstrate progress, and identify what drives growth. By asking the right questions, why isn't something working, how do we keep courts busy, we'll create a shared understanding of the state of play across programs and facilities. These insights will guide smarter strategies and resource allocation to ensure tennis thrives statewide.

Help us shape the future of tennis. Use our insights tools and share your feedback to keep Florida courts thriving!

03 Volunteer System & Structure

The Board emphasized the need for greater leadership in volunteer engagement. Volunteers are the heartbeat of USTA Florida, and this initiative ensures they have a structured, sustainable system to thrive. The Board will take an active role in mentoring, coordinating, and developing volunteers, reducing staff oversight while energizing new talent. Clear roles, responsibilities, and timelines will create a network where volunteers feel empowered to lead and advocate for tennis in their communities.

Be a part of this movement. Connect with our Volunteer Board and discover how you can lead, support. and grow tennis in your community!

USTA FLORIDA BOARD OF DIRECTORS
2025-2026

Chuck Gill
USTA Florida Board President

Chuck Gill was born in Richmond, Virginia, but moved quite often, finding himself in Tennessee, Puerto Rico, and Vermont. Chuck first got involved with tennis when he was 16, stringing rackets and helping run lessons for junior players. He has worked in tennis ever since and currently is the Director of Tennis at Wellington Tennis Center. He got involved as a volunteer by joining different boards and national committees. He joined the USTA Florida Board because he loves the people on the board and being a part of helping to grow tennis.

A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT

Thank you to everyone who joined us for the second annual USTA Florida Tennis Summit. Your energy, ideas, and collaboration once again made this event something special. Over the weekend, we brought together coaches, volunteers, park directors, providers, and partners from every corner of the state, all united by a shared belief in what tennis can do for Florida communities. The passion in those rooms is the reason this work moves forward, and we are grateful to each of you for bringing it.

At this year's Summit we revealed the 2026 State of Florida Tennis report, a clear look at where our sport stands today: how many Floridians are playing, where the game is growing, what our courts and facilities look like, and where the real opportunities are. That picture set the tone for everything that followed. From there, our sessions dug into the work itself. We defined what Best in Class Facilities, Providers, and Volunteers truly means, landing on a standard built around care, consistency, and experience rather than size or budget, so that a neighborhood park and a multi-court center can both meet it. Each session pushed our three Big Bold Moves from vision into practice.

We leave this Summit with momentum, clarity, and a shared commitment to keep pushing Florida tennis forward. Thank you for your dedication, your ideas, and your belief in the power of working together. There is no better time to be part of this game in our state, and we cannot wait to see what we build together in the year ahead.

Chuck Gill

USTA Florida Releases White Paper Making the Case for Public Tennis Court Investment Across the State

USTA Florida has released a new white paper, “The Case for Public Tennis Court Investment in Florida,” highlighting a growing gap between demand and access. With an estimated 1.9 million Floridians playing tennis, but only 3,497 of the state’s roughly 17,770 courts open to the public, there is just one public court for every 6,686 residents. The report calls for at least 800 new or fully rehabilitated public courts over the next decade, supported by state grants, federal funding and local public-private partnerships. USTA Florida has already invested more than $2.9 million across 14 public facility projects since 2022.

USTA Florida continues to expand access by helping launch Jacksonville's first youth wheelchair tennis program and partnering with organizations such as Special Olympics and ACEing Autism.
